- Complete this forbearance form only if you have previously received benefits from the Child Care Provider Loan Forgiveness Program.
- The Child Care Provider Loan Forgiveness Program is a demonstration program that is intended to bring more highly trained individuals into the early child care profession and to keep those child care providers for longer periods of time. Under this program, individuals who work full-time in certain child care facilities that serve low-income families and meet other qualifications may be eligible to have up to 100 percent of their FFEL and/or Direct Loan program loans forgiven. See Sections 5 and 6 for more detailed information.
- Before completing this Child Care Provider Loan Forgiveness Forbearance Form, read the entire form including the definitions, program eligibility requirements, and terms and conditions in Sections 4, 5, and 6.
- Type or print using dark ink. Provide all requested information. Show dates as MM-DD-YYYY (for example, "January 1, 2006" = "01-01-2006").
- Return the completed form to the address shown in Section 8. If no address is shown in Section 8, return the completed form to your loan holder. If you are applying for forbearance of loans that are held by different loan holders, you must submit a separate Child Care Provider Forbearance form to each loan holder.

SECTION 3: FORBEARANCE REQUEST, UNDERSTANDINGS, AND CERTIFICATIONS

- I request forbearance of payments on my eligible loan(s) while I am performing my qualifying child care service.
- I understand that: (1) this forbearance is granted in twelve-month increments and that I must reapply for it each year during the five consecutive years of required employment; (2) during the forbearance period, my principal and interest payments may be postponed, but interest continues to accrue and that interest which accrues during the forbearance will be my responsibility if I do not receive forgiveness; (3) any unpaid interest that accrues during the forbearance period may be capitalized, as permitted by law; (4) receiving forbearance does not guarantee that I will receive loan forgiveness benefits; and (5) If I am past due on payments not covered by this forbearance, my loan holder may grant me a separate forbearance to resolve the delinquency on those past due payments at the time this request for forbearance is processed
- I certify that: (1) the information I provided in this section is true and correct; (2) upon termination of the forbearance, I agree to repay the loan(s) according to the terms of my promissory note(s) and repayment schedule(s); (3) I will notify my loan holder immediately if my qualifying employment at a qualifying child care facility ends; and (4) I meet the eligibility requirements and have read and understand the terms and conditions for the Child Care Provider Loan Forgiveness Program as explained in Sections 5 and 6.

- Early childhood education means education in the areas of early child education or child care, or any other educational area related to child care that the Secretary of Education determines appropriate.
- Eligible loans are Federal Stafford Loans (subsidized and unsubsidized), Federal Direct Stafford/Ford Loans (Direct Subsidized Loans), and Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford/Ford Loans (Direct Unsubsidized Loans) that were made (1) on or after October 7, 1998, (2) for the purpose of obtaining your associate's or bachelor's degree in early childhood education or child care, and (3) before beginning your qualifying service. (Federal PLUS Loans, Direct PLUS Loans, Federal Consolidation Loans, and Direct Consolidation Loans are not eligible.) Any loans received for a master's degree are not eligible loans
- A forbearance is a temporary cessation of payments, an extension of time for making payments, or temporary acceptance of smaller payments than previously scheduled. The borrower is responsible for any interest that accrues on a loan during forbearance. If the borrower does not pay the interest that accrues on the loan, the interest may be capitalized.
- Full-time means working as a child care provider in a child care facility at least 30 hours per week.

- A low-income community means a community in which at least 70 percent of the individuals are from families that earn less than 85 percent of the State median household income. For the purposes of this loan forgiveness program, community means the children who receive child care at the child care facility.

SECTION 5: ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- You must have been a new borrower with eligible loans. For the purpose of this loan forgiveness program, you were considered a new borrower if you had no outstanding balance on a FFEL and/or a Direct Loan program loan on October 7, 1998, or on the date that you obtained a FFEL or a Direct Loan program loan after October 7, 1998.
- You must have received an associate's degree or bachelor's degree in the field of early childhood education or child care that was awarded from an institution of higher education after October 7, 1998.
- If you graduated from an institution of higher education in an area of study other than early childhood education or child care and later returned to postsecondary education in order to obtain an associate's or bachelor's degree in early childhood education or child care, you can only receive forgiveness on eligible loans obtained for a maximum of two of the academic years required to obtain the associate's or bachelor's degree in early childhood education or child care.
- You may not receive benefits for the same child care services under both Subtitle D of Title I of the National and Community Service Act of 1990 (AmeriCorps) and this Child Care Provider Loan Forgiveness Program.
- You must reapply each year to be considered for additional loan forgiveness benefits and the related forbearance. An application or forbearance request for one year does not qualify you for loan forgiveness or the related forbearance in a later year.

SECTION 6: TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- The total amount of all your eligible loans (principal and interest, including interest that accrued during an approved forbearance period) may be forgiven as follows:
  - 20 percent after completing two consecutive years (24 months) of qualifying employment.

  - 30 percent after completing the fourth consecutive year (48 months) of qualifying employment.
  - 30 percent after completing the fifth consecutive year (60 months) of qualifying employment.
- If you are eligible for forbearance while you are performing the eligible full-time child care service in a child care facility that serves a low-income community, your loan holder must provide you with a forbearance of repayment of your eligible loans(s) while you are in qualifying employment unless you are in a deferment status on the loan(s). Forbearance allows you to cease making payments while you are performing this service.
- Your loan holder does not refund any payments that you made or that were made on your behalf before or after you were determined to be eligible for loan forgiveness under this program.
- If you receive forbearance based on any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statements that you knowingly make on this form or on any accompanying documentation, you may be subject to civil and criminal penalties under applicable federal law.
